

THE PAD SHARON LEFT BEHIND

One wonders how this A-list Hollywood celebrity will react to her name being used to sell the London flat she rented while filming in London.

'Sharon Stone's London crash pad!' says the newspaper advertising the five-bedroom 'extremely cool' duplex apartment in Belgravia.

Sharon, left, was there at the time of the July bombings but didn't stay long, taking refuge in Elton John's Windsor mansion.

The flat has a garden, porter and 'intelligent control systems', whatever they might be. The price tag for the private sale is an eye-watering £3.25 million. Contact Daniel on 07967 807691.
